Veterans Count Some Service in Social Security

Some or all of a veteran's active military service may count toward Social Security benefits for himself and his family, Veterans Service Officer Bessie Stonecker said today.

Such benefits would include monthly retirement payments, disability payments, monthly payments to dependent survivors, and lump-sum death payments to widows or widowers.

GENERALLY, veterans who had at least 90 days active service between Sept. 16, 1940 and Dec. 31, 1956, and whose discharge was other than dishonorable, are entitled to Social Security wage credits of $180 for each month of active duty.

Free wage credits may be available to veterans with less than 90 days service in the 1940-56 period described above, if discharged or released because of disability or injury in line of duty, and if discharged under other than dishonorable conditions. Wage credits may also be granted for those who died in active service as well as those who died after discharge, when an eligible survivor files a Social Security benefit claim.

SINCE JAN. 1, 1957, members of the armed forces have been covered by Social Security in the same way as persons in civilian employment, with payments to the fund withheld from their basic pay for active duty.

Military service since Jan. 1, 1957 can be counted toward both military retirement pay and social security benefits. Citizens of the United States who served in the armed forces of U.S. allies during World War II may also receive Social Security wage credits for that service.

THOSE STILL in service may obtain detailed information in their Social Security rights from personnel officers or personal affairs officer at duty stations.

Veterans are advised to inquire at the nearest Social Security office, or through the Veterans Service Office, located at 1622 Gramercy, for assistance in determining their credits.

Revival in Good Start

The Baptist Tent Revival began on last Sunday with a full tent. Not only was the tent filled, extra chairs were placed outside the tent to care for the crowd. The tent is located on Crenshaw and 101 Highway.

The preacher for the revival is Dr. O. Byron Richardson, from Texas. The Texas evangelist has been enthusiastically received by the large crowd in attendance. The singer, Dr. Joe Trussell has thrilled the audience with his direction of the congregational singing and the large choir. He inspired the group as he sang "The Stranger of Galilee." His melodious voice was heard beyond the bounds of the tent, sponsors report.

The services will continue each night at 7:30 through July 23. There are seven
